

DIVINE MERCY STATIONS

Saint Faustina's Way of the Cross

THE FIRST STATION: JESUS IS CONDEMNED TO DEATH

- PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...
- ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.
- READER 1: The chief priest and the entire Sanhedrin kept trying to obtain false testimony against Jesus in order to put Him to death, but they found none, though many false witnesses came forward (Matthew 26:59-60).
- PRIEST: Do not be surprised that you are sometimes unjustly accused. I Myself first drank this cup of undeserved suffering for love of you (289). When I was before Herod, I obtained a grace for you; namely, that you would be able to rise above human scorn and follow faithfully in My footsteps (1164).
- READER 2: We are sensitive to words and quickly want to answer back, without taking any regard as to whether it is God's will that we should speak. A silent soul is strong; no adversities will harm it if it perseveres in silence. The silent soul is capable of attaining the closest union with God (477).
- ALL: Merciful Jesus, help me to know how to accept every human judgment and do not allow me ever to condemn judgment on You in my neighbors.
- PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...
- ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE SECOND STATION: JESUS CARRIES THE CROSS

- PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...
- ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.
- READER 1: Then Pilate took Jesus and had Him scourged. And the soldiers wove a crown out of thorns and placed it on His head, and clothed Him in a purple cloak, and they came to Him and said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple cloak. And Pilate said to them, "Behold, the man!" When the chief priests and the guards saw Him they cried out, "Crucify Him, Crucify Him!" (John 19:1-6).
- PRIEST: Do not be afraid of sufferings; I am with you (151). The more you will come to love suffering, the purer your love for Me will be (279).
- READER 2: Jesus, I thank You for the little daily crosses, for opposition to my endeavors, for the hardships of communal life, for the misinterpretation of my intentions, for humiliations at the hands of others, for the harsh way in which we are treated, for false suspicions, for poor health and loss of strength, for self-denial, for dying to myself, for lack of recognition in everything, for the upsetting of all my plans, (343).
- ALL: Merciful Jesus, teach me to value life's toil, sicknesses, and every suffering, and with love to carry my daily crosses.
- PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...
- ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE THIRD STATION: JESUS FALLS FOR THE FIRST TIME

- PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...
- ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.
- READER 1: We had all gone astray like sheep, each following his own way; But the Lord laid upon Him the guilt of us all (Isaiah 53:6,12).
- PRIEST: Involuntary offenses of souls do not hinder My love for them or prevent Me from uniting Myself with them. But voluntary offenses, even the smallest, obstruct My graces, and I cannot lavish My gifts on such souls (1641).
- READER 2: My Jesus, despite Your graces, I see and feel all my misery... O my Jesus, how prone I am to evil, and this forces me to be constantly vigilant. But I do not lose heart. I trust God's grace, which abounds in the worst misery (606).
- ALL: Merciful Lord, preserve me from every, even the tiniest but voluntary and conscious infidelity.
- PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...
- ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE FOURTH STATION: JESUS MEETS HIS MOTHER

- PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...
- ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.
- READER 1: Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. And you yourself a sword will pierce (Luke 2:34-35).
- PRIEST: Although all the works that come into being by My will are exposed to great sufferings, consider whether any of them has been subject to greater difficulties than that work which is directly Mine— the work of Redemption. You should not worry too much about adversities. (1643).
- PRIEST 2: I saw the Blessed Virgin, unspeakable beautiful. She held me close to herself and said to me, I am Mother to you all, thanks to the unfathomable mercy of God. Most pleasing to me is that soul which faithfully carries out the will of God. Be courageous. Do not fear apparent obstacles, but fix your gaze upon the Passion of my Son, and in this way you will be victorious (449).
- ALL: Mary, Mother of Mercy, be near me always especially in sufferings as you were on your Son's way of the cross.
- PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...
- ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE FIFTH STATION: SIMON HELPS JESUS TO CARRY HIS CROSS

- PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...
- ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.
- READER 1: As they lead Him away they took hold of a certain Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country; and after laying the cross on him, they made him carry it behind Jesus (Luke 23:26).
- PRIEST: Write that by day and by night My gaze is fixed upon him, and I permit these adversities in order to increase your merit. I do not reward for good results but for the patience and hardship undergone for My sake (86).
- READER 2: Jesus, You do not give a reward for the successful performance of a work, but for the good will and the labor undertaken. Therefore, I am completely at peace, even if all my undertakings and efforts should be thwarted or should come to naught. If I do all that is in my power, the rest is not my business (952).
- ALL: Jesus, my Lord, let my every thought, word, and deed be undertaken exclusively out of love for You. Keep on cleansing my intentions.
- PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...
- ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE SIXTH STATION: VERONICA WIPES THE FACE OF JESUS

PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...

ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.

READER 1: He grew up like a sapling before him, like a shoot from the parched earth; There was in Him no stately bearing to make us look at Him, no appearance that would attract us to Him. He was spurned and avoided by men, a man of suffering, accustomed to infirmity. One of those from whom men hide their faces spurned, and we held Him in no esteem (Isaiah 53:2-3).

PRIEST: Know that whatever good you do to any soul, I accept it as if you had done it to Me (1768).

READER 2: I am learning how to be good from Jesus, from Him who is goodness itself, so that I may be called a [child] of the heavenly Father (669). Great love can change small things into great ones, and it is only love which lends value to our actions (303).

ALL: Lord Jesus, my Master, grant that my eyes, my hands, my lips and my heart may always be merciful. Transform me into mercy.

PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...

ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE SEVENTH STATION: JESUS FALLS THE SECOND TIME

- PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...
- ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.
- READER 1: Yet it was our infirmities that He bore, our sufferings that He endured, while we thought of Him as stricken, as one smitten by God and afflicted (Isaiah 53:4).
- PRIEST: The cause of your falls is that you rely too much upon yourself and too little on Me. But let this not sadden you so much. You are dealing with the God of mercy (1488). Know that of yourself you can do nothing (639). Without special help from Me, you are not even capable of accepting My graces (738).
- READER 2: Jesus, do not leave me alone in suffering. You know, Lord, how weak I am. I am an abyss of wretchedness, I am nothingness itself; so what will be so strange if You leave me alone and I fall? (1489). So You, Jesus, must stand by me constantly like a mother by a helpless child – and even more so (264).
- ALL: May Your grace assist me, Lord, that I may not keep falling continuously into the same faults; and when I fall, help me to rise and glorify Your mercy.
- PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...
- ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE EIGHTH STATION: JESUS MEETS THE WOMEN OF JERUSALEM

PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...

ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.

READER 1: A large crowd of people followed Jesus, including many women who mourned and lamented Him. Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me; weep instead for yourselves and for your children (Luke 23:27-28).

PRIEST: O how pleasing to Me is living faith! (1420) Tell all, that I demand that they live in the spirit of faith (353).

READER 2: I fervently beg the Lord to strengthen my faith, so that in my drab, everyday life I will not be guided by human dispositions, but by those of the spirit. Oh, how everything drags man towards the earth! But lively faith maintains the soul in the higher regions and assigns self-love its proper place; that is to say, the lowest one (210).

ALL: Merciful Lord, I thank You for holy Baptism and the grace of faith. Continuously, I call: "Lord, I believe, increase my faith."

PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...

ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE NINTH STATION: JESUS FALLS FOR THE THIRD TIME

PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...

ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.

READER 1: Though He was harshly treated. He submitted and opened not his mouth. Like a lamb led to the slaughter or a sheep before the shearers, He was silent and opened not His mouth. Oppressed and condemned, he was taken away, and who would have thought any more of His destiny? When He was cut off from the land of the living, and smitten for the sin of His people. But the Lord was pleased to crush Him in infirmity. (Isaiah 53:7-8)

PRIEST : My child, know that the greatest obstacles to holiness are discouragement and an exaggerated anxiety. These will deprive you of the ability to practice virtue. Do not lose heart in coming for pardon, for I am always ready to forgive you. As often as you beg for it, you glorify My mercy. (1488).

READER 2: My Jesus, despite Your graces, I see and feel all my misery. I begin my day with battle and end it with battle. As soon as I conquer one obstacle, ten more appear to take its place. But I am not worried, because I know that this is the time of struggle, not peace (606).

ALL: Merciful Lord, I give over to You that which is my exclusive property, that is, my sin and my human weakness. I beg You, may my misery drown in Your unfathomable mercy.

PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...

ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE TENTH STATION: JESUS IS STRIPPED OF HIS GARMENTS

PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...

ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.

READER 1: When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took His clothes and divided them into four shares, a share for each soldier. They also took His tunic, but the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top down. So they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it will be," in order that the passage of scripture might be fulfilled (John 19:23-24).

PRIEST: The bride must resemble her Betrothed.

READER 2: Jesus was suddenly standing before me, stripped of His clothes, His body completely covered with wounds, His eyes flooded with tears and blood, His face disfigured and covered with spittle. I understood these words to their very depth. There is no room for doubt here. My likeness to Jesus must be through suffering and humility (268).

ALL: Jesus, meek and humble of heart, make my heart like unto Your heart.

PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...

ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE ELEVENTH STATION: JESUS IS NAILED TO THE CROSS

PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...

ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.

READER 1: Those passing by reviled Him, shaking their heads and saying, "You would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself, if You are the Son of God, [and] come down from the cross!" Likewise the chief priests with the scribes and the elders mocked Him and said, "He saved others; He cannot save Himself. He trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now if he wants Him. For He said, 'I am the Son of God'" (Matthew 27:39-43).

PRIEST: My pupil, have great love for those who cause you suffering. Do good to those who hate you (1628).

READER 2: O my Jesus, you know what efforts are needed to live sincerely and unaffectedly with those from whom our nature flees, or with those who, deliberately or not, have made us suffer. Humanly speaking, this is impossible. At such times more than at others, I try to discover the Lord Jesus in such a person and for the same Jesus, I do everything for such people (766).

ALL: Our purest Love, rule in all Your plenitude in my heart and help me to do You holy will most faithfully (328).

PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...

ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE TWELFTH STATION: JESUS DIES ON THE CROSS

- PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...
- ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world. (Remain kneeling for a few seconds.)
- READER 1: But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break His legs, but one soldier thrust his lance into His side, and immediately blood and water flowed out (John 19:33-40).
- PRIEST: All this is for the salvation of souls. Consider well, My daughter, what you are doing for their salvation (1184). Do you see these souls? Those who are like Me in the pain and contempt they suffer will be like Me also in glory. And those who resemble Me less in pain and contempt will also bear less resemblance to me in glory (446).
- READER 2: Then I saw the Lord Jesus nailed to the cross. When He had hung on it for a while, I saw a multitude of souls crucified like Him. Then I saw a second multitude of souls, and a third. The second multitude were not nailed to [their] crosses, but were holding them firmly in their hands. The third were neither nailed to [their] crosses nor holding them firmly in their hands, but were dragging [their] crosses behind them and were discontent. (446)
- ALL: Jesus, my Savior, hide me in the depth of Your heart that, strengthened by Your grace, I may be able to resemble You in the love of the Cross and have a share in Your glory.
- PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...
- ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE THIRTEENTH STATION: JESUS IS TAKEN DOWN FROM THE CROSS

PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...

ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.

READER 1: The centurion who witnessed what had happened glorified God and said, "This man was innocent beyond doubt." When all the people who had gathered for this spectacle saw what had happened, they returned home beating their breasts; but all His acquaintances stood at a distance, including the women who had followed Him from Galilee, and saw these events (Luke 23:47-49).

PRIEST: Most dear to Me is the soul that strongly believes in My goodness and has complete trust in me. I heap My confidence upon it and give it all it asks (453).

READER 2: I fly to Your mercy, Compassionate God, who alone are good. Although my misery is great, and my offenses are many, I trust in Your mercy, because You are the God of mercy. It has never been heard of, nor do heaven or earth remember, that a soul trusting in You mercy has been disappointed (1730).

ALL: Merciful Jesus, daily increase my trust in Your mercy that always and everywhere I may give witness to Your boundless goodness and love.

PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...

ALL: Have Mercy on us.

THE FOURTEENTH STATION: JESUS IS PLACED IN THE TOMB

PRIEST: We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you...

ALL: because by your Holy Cross, You have redeemed the world.

READER 1: They took the body of Jesus and bound it with burial cloths along with the spices, according to the Jewish burial custom. Now in the place where He had been crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had yet been buried. So they laid Jesus there because of the Jewish preparation day; for the tomb was close by (John 19:38-42).

PRIEST: But child, you are not yet in your home; so go, strengthened by My grace, and fight for My kingdom in human souls; fight as a king's child would; and remember that the days of your exile will pass quickly, and with them the possibility of earning merit for heaven. I expect from you, My child, a great number of souls who will glorify My mercy for all eternity (1489).

READER 2: Every soul You have entrusted to me, Jesus, I will try to aid with prayer and sacrifice, so that Your grace can work in them. O great lover of souls, my Jesus, I thank You for this immense confidence with which You have placed souls in our care (245).

ALL: Grant, Merciful Lord, that not even one of those souls which You have entrusted to me be lost.

PRIEST: Lord Jesus Crucified...

ALL: Have Mercy on us.

ALL:       Merciful Lord, my Master, I want to follow You faithfully. I want to imitate You in my life in an ever more perfect way. That is why I ask that by meditating on Your Passion, You would grant me the grace of a deeper understanding of the mysteries of the spiritual life.

Mary, Mother of Mercy, always faithful to Christ, lead me in the footsteps of the sorrowful Passion of your Son and ask for me the necessary graces for a fruitful making of this Way of the Cross.

PRIEST:    God our Father, in obedience to You, Your only Son accepted death on the cross for the salvation of mankind. We acknowledge the mystery of the cross on earth. May we receive the gift of redemption in Heaven. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit one God, for ever and ever.

ALL:       Amen.
